3. On a perusal of the records, this Court found that there is a property dispute between the parties. The Writ Court cannot conduct a roving enquiry and find out the correctness based on the right and interest over the property. The competent court is a Civil Court which can testify the veracity of the pleadings and the documents by way of oral and documentary evidence.

4. In view of the same, the Writ Petition is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs. However, the petitioner is at liberty to workout her remedy before the Civil Court, in the manner known to law.
