I have heard Mr.R.Subramaniam, learned Additional Central Government Standing Counsel for the 2nd respondent. No representation for the petitioner.

2.This matter has been transferred from the Intellectual Property Appellate Board. Even before the IPAB, the papers were returned to the petitioner for complying with certain defects. However, thereafter there has been no representation of the papers and the file received from the IPAB is also incomplete.

3.There was no representation on the side of the petitioner on the earlier occasion and hence, two weeks time was granted to comply with the defects and to file necessary copies in the present petition and it was made clear that in the event of failing to comply with the above defects, this Original Petition will be dismissed for non-prosecution. There is no compliance with the earlier order and there is also no representation for the petitioner.
