2. The learned Counsel appearing for the private respondents submitted that the petitioner was not inclined to carry out the work as per the tender specification but trying to lay a substandard road, hence that was objected. To ascertain whether the petitioner has intended to carry out the work as per the specification and the demand of the private respondent is whether in tune with the tender specification, this Court directed the learned counsel for the petitioner to produce the description of the work of the subject tender. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has furnished the copy of the description of the work which forms part of the tender.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the private respondents states that if the petitioner is ready to carry out the work as per the specification, the private respondents have no objection.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) confirms that if necessary protection will be given to the petitioner to carry out the work as per the tender specification and the work shall be done under the supervision of the Block Development Officer and the protection is sought by the BDO for execution of the work.
