'7. The fourth respondent never served the impugned notice either in person or by post and only the photostat copy of the impugned notice served by the Village Administrative Officer of Kandacheepuram Village, if the production of the original impugned notice is not yet dispensed I would be put to irreparable loss and hardship.'

5. Owing to the facts and circumstances of the case on hand and nature of the matter on hand, the above reason is accepted for the limited purpose of dispense with prayer in captioned WMP without expressing any other opinion in this order.

6. In the light of the narrative thus far, captioned WMP is ordered as prayed for. There shall be no order as to costs.
