For Petitioner : Mr.N.Viswanathan

For Respondents : Mr.Rajnish Pathiyil
Senior Panel Counsel

COMMON ORDER

These Writ Petitions have been filed to direct the respondents 1 to 3 herein to forthwith release various models of Secondhand Highly Specialized Equipment - Digital Multifunction Print, Copying & Scanning Machines, imported by the petitioners.

W.P.Nos.20934 of 2024, etc., batch

2. According to the petitioners, the issue involved in these Writ Petitions is covered by a judgment of this Court dated 18.12.2023 passed in W.P.Nos.35145 of 2023, etc., batch. Hence, he would urge this Court to pass similar order in the present Writ Petitions also.

3. In the present batch of cases, subsequent to the order passed by this Court, a Notification No.13/2024-25 was issued on 20.05.2024, whereby the import of the subject items were prohibited.

4. Now, the issue before this Court is that whether the petitioners are entitled to the release of the various models of Secondhand Highly Specialized Equipment - Digital Multifunction Print, Copying & Scanning Machines, imported by the petitioners prior to the Notification No.13/2024-25, dated 20.05.2024?

5. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that for all practical purposes, the date of reckoning of import would be decided with reference to the date of shipment/dispatch of goods and not the date of arrival of goods at an Indian Port. He refers to the Hand Book of Procedures issued by the DGFT, where Chapter - 1 is pertaining to the Legal Framework and Trade

Facilitation. He refers to Clause 2.17, which deals with the date of reckoning of import/export and reads as follows:-

2.17 Date of reckoning of Import/ Export

(a) Date of reckoning of import is decided with reference to date of shipment / dispatch of goods from supplying country as given in Paragraph 11.11 of Handbook of Procedures and not the date of arrival of goods at an Indian Port.

(b) Date of reckoning of export is decided with reference to date of shipment/ dispatch of goods from India as given in Paragraph 11.12 of Handbook of Procedures. However, for benefit under FTP, Let Export Order (LEO) date shall be the date of reckoning of export.

By referring to the above said Clause, the date of reckoning of import would be the date of shipment/ dispatch of goods. In this regard, the learned counsel for the petitioners refer to Clause 11.11, which reads as follows:-

11.11 Date of shipment/Dispatch in respect of Imports:

Date of shipment/dispatch for imports will be reckoned as under:-

S.No	Mode of Transportation	Date of Shipment / Dispatch
(i)	By Sea	The date affixed on the Bill of Lading
(ii)	By Air	Date of relevant Airway Bill provided this

W.P.Nos.20934 of 2024, etc., batch

S.No	Mode of Transportation	Date of Shipment / Dispatch
		represents date on which goods left last airport in the country from which the import is effected.

Therefore, he would submit that the date of reckoning of import would be the date of Bill of Lading.

6. In the present cases, the bills of lading would be dated much before the date of impugned Notification dated 20.05.2024. Therefore, the learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the said Notification will not be applicable to the petitioners who had already initiated the process of import and the bills of lading were raised.

7. Mr.A.P.Srinivas, learned Senior Standing Counsel would submit that for all practical purposes, the bill of lading would be the date of shipment. He fairly submits that the bills of lading in the present batch of cases would be dated before the date of impugned Notification dated 20.05.2024. Therefore, the order passed by this Court in W.P.Nos.35145 of 2024 etc., batch in the case of M/s.Atul Commodities Private Limited Vs. The Commission of Customs (Chennai II) Import, Chennai and Others, dated 18.12.2023, will hold in respect to the present Writ Petitions also.

8. Accordingly, following the above order, this Court is inclined to pass the following order:-

On receipt of such enhanced duty amount paid by the petitioners, the goods in question shall be released within a period of three (3) weeks thereafter.

(b) For payment of such duty, quantification shall be made by the Customs forthwith within one (1) week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. On receipt of such quantifications, the payment shall be immediately made by the petitioners and on receipt of the payment in entirety, the goods shall be released as indicated above at the outer limit of three (3) weeks.

(c) It is made clear that this order will not stand in the way for Customs Department to go ahead with the further proceedings including the adjudication in the manner known to law.

(d) It is further made clear that in the earlier interim order passed in a related Writ Petitions by an another Division Bench of this Court, that demurrage charges till date for the goods was directed to be considered for waiver.
