The petitioner, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Section 379 of IPC, in Crime No.217 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated, as if he, along with other accused was illegally transported two units of river sand. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

3. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that based on the secret information, the respondent police arrested the petitioner along with other accused for illegally transporting two units of river sand, worth Rs.4,000/-, by using Tipper Lorry without having valid permission. He further submitted that the petitioner has no previous case pending against him. However, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
