The appellant, the National Insurance Company Limited is the second respondent in M.C.O.P.144/2019. The respondents 1 and 2 filed a claim petition in M.C.O.P.144/2019 under Section 166 of the Motor Vehicles Act before the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Vellore seeking compensation of Rs.50,00,000/- for the death of their mother Sasikala (deceased) in the road accident that took place on 11.08.2018.

CMA.No.1286 of 2024

2. The brief case of the claimants is as follows :

On 11.08.2018, Sasikala (deceased) was travelling in a Car bearing Registration number TN-09-R-2324 on Karaikudi - Trichy National Highway. When the car was nearing Namanasamthiram, the driver of the car drove the vehicle in a rash and negligent manner and hit a Lorry bearing Registration number TN-28-AB-2962 which was parked on the left hand side of the road, as a result of which, Sasikala sustained grievous head injury. She was immediately rushed to Pudukottai Medical College Hospital from where she was referred to Thanjavur Medical College and hospital. However she succumbed to injuries on the next day i.e., 12.08.2018.

3. According to the claimants, the accident took place due to the rash and negligent driving of the driver of the car and that since the said vehicle was insured with the present appellant, the National Insurance Company Limited, the owner and the insurer are jointly and severally liable to pay compensation to her.

4. In the Tribunal, the owner of the vehicle remained absent and was set exparte. The appellant/Insurance Company resisted the claim petition on all grounds available to the insurer under Section 170 of the Motor vehicles Act.

5. The Tribunal, after analysing the evidence on record, fixed the negligence on the part of the driver of the car and awarded compensation of Rs.11,20,052/- to the claimants and directed the present appellant Insurance Company to deposit the said amount together with interest @ 7.5% per annum vide her orders dated 23.12.2022.

6. Questioning the liability to pay compensation, the present appeal is filed by the appellant / the National Insurance Company Limited.

7. Heard Mr.S.Senthil Kumar, learned counsel for the appellant,

CMA.No.1286 of 2024

Mr.A.Sivakumar, learned counsel appearing for the respondents 1 and 2 and Mr.P.K.Rajagopal, learned counsel appearing for the third respondent.

8. Mr.S.Senthil Kumar, learned counsel for the appellant would contend that since the Insurance Company had issued only an 'Act Policy', the inmates of the car bearing Registration number TN-09-R-2324 are not entitled to get any compensation from the Insurance Company and that the Tribunal had not gone into this aspect even though the Insurance Policy was marked as Ex.P4. He also relied on the decision of the Division Bench of this Court in M/s.New India Assurance Co. Ltd., Vrs Meenakshi and others in CMA No.3658 of 2014, dated 24.03.2023 and contended that the Act Policy cannot cover a third party risk of inmates of the car. He, therefore prayed for setting aside the order of the Tribunal.

9. A perusal of the FIR (Ex.P1) shows that the driver of the car bearing Registration number TN-09-R-2324 was the wrong doer. Therefore, it is clear that the driver of the car was rash and negligent in driving his vehicle.

10. It is pertinent to point out that the Tribunal while deciding the claim petition under Motor vehicles Act should examine the terms of the Policy, produced by the Insurer and in the event of denial of liability, the finding should be recorded with regard to the nature of Policy, as to whether it was 'Act Policy' or 'Package Policy'.

11. In the instant case, the Tribunal has not given any definite finding in this regard though the Insurance company has taken a specific plea that they are not liable to pay compensation to the claimants since the Policy of the Insurance is only an Act Policy.

12. Under the Indian Motor Tariff (IMT), different types of policies are issued and they are contained in IMT section 7 (page 107 of IMT). They are

- (a) Standard form for liability only policy.
- (b) Standard form for private car package policy.
- (c) Standard form for two wheeler package policy.
- (d) Standard form for commercial vehicles package policy.
- (e) Standard form for motor trade package policy and the like. Each policy is split into different sections to deal with different contingencies and the parties bind themselves to the terms of the clause contained in each section of the policy. For example, the package policy for a private car which is applicable to the present case contains:-

Section I Loss of or damage to the vehicle insured, Section II Liability to third parties, Section III Personal accident cover for owner-driver there are other conditions and limits. In this appeal, we are concerned with the liability of the insurance company in respect of a gratuitous passengers/occupants in a private vehicle (car).

The first policy in Section 6 of IMT is liability only policy or an act only policy. In that the liability to third parties is set out as hereunder:-

LIABILITY TO THIRD PARTIES:

i] Subject to the Limit of liability as laid down in the schedule hereto, the Company will indemnify the insured in the event of accident caused by or arising out of the use of the Motor Vehicle anywhere in India against all sums including claimant's costs and expenses which the insured shall become legally liable to pay in respect of death of or bodily injury to any person so far as it is necessary to meet the requirements of the Motor Vehicles Act.

ii] damage to property other than property belonging to the insured or held in trust or in the custody of control of the insured up to the limit specified in the schedule (emphasis supplied).

13. In the instant case, the specific contention of the insurance company is that the Insurance Policy is an “Act policy” and therefore, the same would not cover the inmates of the car. A perusal of the insurance policy clearly shows that it is only an Act policy. Only a comprehensive/package policy would cover the liability of the inmates of the car or a pillion rider in a scooter and hence the insurance company is not liable to pay compensation.

14. In the decision in M/s.New India Assurance Co. Ltd., Vs Meenakshi and others in CMA No.3658 of 2014, dated 24.03.2023 a Division bench of this Court had also held that the 'Act Policy' cannot cover a third party risk of an inmates of the Car or a Pillion rider of the Scooter. The relevant portion of the said decision is extracted hereunder:

“(32) In Bhagyalakshmi and Others V. United

Insurance Company Limited and Another reported in 2009 [7] SCC 148, the Hon'ble Supreme Court noticed conflicting views on the question as to whether gratuitous passengers travelling in a private car or pillion riders carried on two wheelers are automatically covered under a package policy. The Hon'ble Supreme Court opined that the matter requires consideration by a Larger Bench. However, there is no divergent view as regards a case which is similar to the present case where the policy is a statutory policy or an Act only Policy. The uniform view expressed in all other judgments is that the gratuitous passenger in a private vehicle would not be covered for a bodily injury or death under the policy insurance which is an Act Policy. In respect of a package policy for private cars, the Hon'ble Supreme Court expressed its view that the matter requires consideration by a Larger Bench. The scope of reference to a Larger Bench was in fact considered by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in National Insurance Company Limited V. Balakrishnan and Another reported in 2013 [1] SCC 731, wherein the Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as follows:-

"20. Thus, it is quite vivid that the Bench in Bhagyalakshmi case [(2009) 7 SCC 148 : (2009) 3 SCC (Civ) 87 : (2009) 3 SCC (Cri) 321] had made a distinction between the "Act policy" and "comprehensive policy/package policy". We respectfully concur with the said distinction. The crux of the matter is what would be the liability of the insurer if the policy is a “comprehensive/package policy”. We are absolutely conscious that the matter has been referred to a larger Bench, but, as is evident, the Bench has also observed that it would depend upon the view of the Tariff Advisory Committee pertaining to enforcement of its decision to cover the liability of an occupant in a vehicle in a “comprehensive/package policy” regard being had to the contract of insurance."

(33)The position reiterated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in various other decisions in cases of Act Policy is also reiterated in the case of Balakrishnan's case [cited supra], to the effect that an Act Policy cannot cover a third party risk of an occupant in a car. "

15. The Insurance Company has not questioned the quantum of compensation in this appeal. Therefore, the compensation awarded by the Tribunal is upheld. However, the owner of the car bearing Registration number TN-09-R-2324 is liable to pay the entire compensation amount to the claimants. The Insurance Company can withdraw the compensation amount, if any, deposited by them in the Court.
