ORDER

The instant Writ Petition has been filed in respect of recovery of an order passed against the petitioner on account of a shortage of 450 bags of rice from the respondent/Corporation, which costs around Rs. 7,00,000/-. In this matter, the petitioner's share was assessed as Rs. 59,000/-, and he was directed to pay the same.

2. It appears that the said amount has been recovered from the petitioner's salary. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the respondent has also initiated disciplinary proceedings against him and has passed an order imposing the punishment of withholding of increment for one year with cumulative effect. Such order is now challenged before the Appellate Authority, and the same is still pending.

3. There is no representation on the behalf of the respondent when the matter is called today.

5. With the above observations, this Writ Petition is disposed of. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed. No costs.
