This Petition has been filed to restore the Second Appeal No.567 of 1999 which was dismissed for abatement on 28.03.2022.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the appellants and the learned counsel for the respondents.

3. Previously, the second appeal was dismissed on the grounds that the appellants had not taking steps to impleade the legal heirs of the 1st appellant. The petitioner is around 75 years old, due to his advanced age and the fact that only his brother and son were following the proceedings, there was a lack of communication. Now they are ready to take the necessary steps. Notice has also been served to the respondents, and no objections have been raised.
