4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent raised objection and stating that this petitioner gave fake promises to various persons to get job to them in various departments and he collected huge amount from various persons. The nature of the case is job racketing and the amount involved in this case is Rs.36,20,000/-, so far no recovery from the accused. Hence, he raised strong objection to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and also the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent and perused the entire materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by the counsels and on considering the gravity of offence, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
