The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 498 (A), 494, 294(b) and 506 (2) of I.P.C in Crime No.8 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant was married to the first petitioner and there was a family dispute between them and the petitioners have also harassed the de facto complainant and caused criminal intimidation and abused with obscene words. While so, the first petitioner married another women and cheated the de facto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioners had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for their due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the first petitioner and the de facto complainant are husband and wife respectively and the other petitioners are in-laws of the de facto complainant. He further submitted that the petitioners have harassed and cheated the de facto complainant and the first petitioner has married another women without the knowledge of the de facto complainant and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and also considering the gravity of offences, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and also the relationship between the parties and there is a matrimonial dispute pending and also considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and further, this Court by an order dated 29.07.2024 has granted anticipatory bail to the petitioners with condition and the same was condition was complied with and hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Additional Mahila Court, Coimbatore on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (each) (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police on every first day of the English calendar, for three months.

[b] the petitioners shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade then from disclosing such facts of the Court or to any police officer.

[c] the petitioners shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioners shall make themselves available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the petitioners thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.
