The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 24.06.2024, in Crime No.32 of 2008 on the file of the respondent police, registered for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 406, 465, 466, 468, 471, 420 r/w 34 IPC, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant, that she is the absolute owner of the property situated at No.37, Ellaiamman Nagar, 2nd Street, Korattur, Chennai – 600 076. Due to her financial difficulties, the defacto complainant decided to sell the property for a valuable consideration of Rs.11 lakhs. The petitioner showed his intent to purchase the property and entered into an agreement on 01.02.2005, for which, he paid a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- as advance and also Rs.75,000/-. It is further alleged that the petitioner insisted the defacto complainant hand over the original documents for obtaining legal opinion, for which, the defacto complainant handed over the same. After obtaining the original documents, the petitioner has created forged documents as if they were executed by the defacto complainant claiming they had taken possession for the loan amount of Rs.9,88,048/-, which fell due. Hence, the complaint.

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submission made by the learned counsel of either side, long period of absconding of the accused and also considering the nature of offence, if he released on bail, he will abscond, hence, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
