2. The learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned counsel appearing for the respondents 1 & 4 submitted in unison that the disputes which have arisen between the parties have been amicably resolved and the parties have entered into a Joint Compromise Memo and therefore, nothing survives in this petition for further adjudication. They have also filed the said Joint Compromise Memo dated 26.11.2024 signed by both the parties, before this Court.

3. In view of the above submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned counsel appearing for the respondents 1 & 4 coupled with the Joint Compromise Memo filed by them, this petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
