3. The High Court is not a process server for the Family Court.

4. The Civil Revision Petitioner appears to be attempting to obtain a decree through substituted service. However, none of the proceedings that have been referred before me shows that the plaintiff has paid batta and the summons have been returned as unserved.

5. Unless and until summons have been returned as unserved, when sent to the correct address of the respondent, substituted service cannot be ordered.

6. The impugned order is not capable of being revised. Accordingly, this Civil Revision Petition stands dismissed. No costs.
