The petitioner herein appears in person and states that due to personal vengeance at the instance of the local police, summons under Section 110 of Cr.P.C been issued to him for executing bond and keep good conduct in view of the ensuing parliamentary election. Contending that the said summons dated 02.05.2024 and 14.05.2024 bereft of materials, same has to be quashed.

2. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submits that three criminal cases are pending against this petitioner. Therefore to have watch on his conduct and obtained bond for good behaviour at the time of parliamentary election, summons were issued to the petitioner. However, the petitioner cannot turn up and execute the bond.

3. This Court scrutinising the impugned notice find that the petitioner been registered as a history sheeter in Voimedu Police Station vide H.S.No.277 of 2019 and he was summoned under Section 110 to give bond for good conduct in view of the parliamentary election. Since the parliamentary election has over, this Court is of the view that the
