

WEB COPY

Comp.A.Nos. 365 to 371 & 381 to 371 of 2024
in
C.P. No. 115 of 2004

K.KUMARESH BABU, J.

The applications are to condone the delay in filing the applications against the rejection of the respondent /liquidator.

2. Heard learned counsel for the parties. The learned counsel for the respondent stated no objection for ordering these petitions.

3. Having regard to the reasons stated in the affidavits filed in support of these applications and also considering the no objection expressed on the side of the respondent, the delay is condoned and these applications are accordingly, ordered.

25.10.2024

Maya