P. DHANABAL,J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 4(1)(C) and 4(1-A)(ii) of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition Act in Crime No.1395 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found with illegal possession of 54 number of Black Pearl Brandy bottles for the purpose of selling at a higher price, which were given by the petitioner/A1 to him, by purchasing from a TASMAL shop. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the defacto complainant and the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case; he is a law abiding citizen. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Hon'ble Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioner by stating that petitioner was found with illegal possession of 54 number of Black Pearl Brandy bottles for the purpose selling at a higher price, which were given by the petitioner/A1 to him, by purchasing from a TASMAC shop and there are three previous cases pending against the petitioner. He also submits that the petitioner is A1, who is the owner, directed A2 (his employee) to sell the said 54 number of Black Pearl Brandy bottles of liquor and A1 is friend of A2.

5. Considering the submissions made on both sides and considering the quantity of liquor possessed by the petitioner and the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial
