This writ petition has been filed by the petitioner, seeking for the issuance of a Writ of Mandamus to direct the respondent Nos. 4 to 6, 8, 9, 15 and 16 to take action against respondent Nos.17 to 19 based on his representations/complaint letters dated 08.12.2023, 20.03.2024, 02.04.2024 and 03.04.2024 regarding fake school record sheet, bogus certificates.

2. According to the petitioner, the 17th respondent herein, has obtained SC Certificate fraudulently by producing fake school certificates and that the date of birth of the 17th respondent mentioned in the school record sheet as 15.05.1984, whereas, he obtained the Aadhar Card, wherein, his date of birth is mentioned as 03.07.1979. It is further stated that the 17th respondent also obtained SC certificates in favour of his two daughters, who are the 18th and 19th respondents herein. Therefore, the petitioner has made various representations/complaint letters to the respondents authorities to take action against the respondents 17 to 19 for having obtained the SC certificates fraudulently. Since no response was forthcoming, the petitioner has come forward with the present Writ Petition.

3. The petitioner / party-in-person submits that though the 17th respondent by way of forged documents has approached the Revenue Tahsildar to obtain Scheduled Caste Certificate in favour of his two daughter, however, even without verifying the said documents, the concerned Tahsildar has granted the SC certificate in favour of his daughters. Hence, he prayed this Court to direct the respondent authorities to consider his complaint letters 08.12.2023, 20.03.2024, 02.04.2024 and 03.04.2024 and pass appropriate orders within the time frame that may be stipulated by this Court.

4. Heard the respective learned counsel for the respondents and perused the materials placed on record.

5. Though the petitioner is more considerate about the SC certificate obtained by the 17th respondent in favour of his daughters, which is alleged to have been obtained by using forged documents ie., the school record sheet and the Aadhaar card, Voter ID etc., however, a perusal of the records reveals that the 17th respondent is not a Government servant. Further if, the petitioner has some evidence to substantiate the above allegations, the proper course would be to competent authority and further on the basis of the said documents, if some benefit is claimed, then the petitioner could be considered to be an aggrieved person. However, in the present case, the petitioner is relying upon certain documents, however, the 17th respondent is not claiming any benefit on the basis of the said documents from any public authority. Hence, the prayer sought for in this writ petition cannot be granted.

6. In the light of above dissension, this writ petition is dismissed. However, in case the 17th respondent claims any benefit on the basis of the alleged forged documents, liberty is granted to the petitioner to work out his remedy in the manner known to law. No costs.
