respondents was directed to take instructions from the 1st respondent to ascertain the fact whether any detailed order was passed by the 1st respondent.

3. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents, on written instructions from the 1st respondent, submitted that after receipt of online application from the petitioner, an attempt was made to contact the petitioner through phone to direct her to produce the supporting documents, as she failed to produce supporting document in the online application. However, there was no response and accordingly, her application was rejected. However, no detailed order was passed and the same was communicated to the petitioner.

4. In view of the said statement made by the learned Additional Government Pleader, the online application of the petitioner was not considered and detailed order was passed, the impugned communication dated 30.05.2024 in online portal as if, the online application of the petitioner was rejected is quashed and the petitioner is directed to submit the supporting documents before the 1st respondent within a period of two
