respondent submits that the petitioner along with his friend had stabbed the defacto complainant's son in his head with knife and caused injuries to him. However, the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous cases against these petitioners. Thereby, he strongly opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous cases against these petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Hosur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute separate bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate
