

Crl.O.P.No.19753 of 2024

P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 420 & 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No. 182 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner to arrange overseas job and received about Rs.2,50,000/- as professional charge from the de-facto complainant. Thereafter, he neither arranged the job nor returned the money. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that no previous case is pending against him and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner has failed to arrange any job to the de-facto complainant and cheated him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above submissions made by the learned Counsel on either side, no previous case is pending against the petitioner, considering the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Kattumannarkoil on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix his photograph and left thumb impression in the surety bond and
