police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 5 bottles of liquor for sale to public. Hence the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case, since she has got some previous cases. She has not committed any offence as alleged in the FIR. He would further submit that the petitioner was arrested and is in judicial custody for more than 40 days and is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed bail for the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 5 bottles of liquor for sale to public. He further submitted that the petitioner has two previous cases, similar in nature, pending against her, and thereby, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record

6. Considering the nature of offence and the quantity involved and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and also considering that the petitioner has 2 previous cases, in all the cases, she has been released on bail and also considering all others factors, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the Judicial Magistrate Court, Sendamangalam, Namakkal, and on further conditions that:-

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police everyday at 10.30 a.m., for a period of four weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[b] the petitioner shall not commit any offences of similar nature.

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.
