P. DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 4(1) (B) of TNP Act in Crime No.912 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused is running a bar without proper licence. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against him. The petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police and hence, he seeks anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent submitted that bail was granted for some of the co-accused by this Court below and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the arguments from both sides, the nature of the offence, that bail was granted for some of the co-accused, there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and other relevant aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No. I, Mayiladuthurai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m for a period of four weeks and thereafter as and

[b] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[d] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[e] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
