P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 6(4) of the TNSC (RDCS) 1982 r/w 7(1)(a)(ii) of the EC Act and in Crime No.122 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during regular checkup, the petitioner was found illegally transporting PDS rice weighting about 6960kgs. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He submitted that the petitioner is willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner was found illegally transporting 6960kgs of PDS rice and the materials were seized and there are 10 previous cases as against the petitioner and out of which two cases were disposed of and considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also taking into consideration the quantity of materials seized and though there are 10 previous cases as against the petitioner they are not similar in nature and as the co-accused were arrested and released on bail and also taking into consideration of the fact that the petitioner was arrayed as accused only based on the confession statement given by the co-accused, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
