The petitioner / accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 6(4) of TNSC (RDCS) Order 1982 r/w. 7(i) a(ii) of E.C. Act, 1955, in Crime No.243 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with the other accused had illegally transported 750 kgs of PDS rice in a vehicle. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not involved in the offences as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The Government Advocate (Criminal side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with the other accused had illegally transported 750 kgs of PDS rice in a vehicle. He would further submit that there are totally 6 previous cases against the petitioner and out of which three cases ended in acquittal and remaining three cases are still pending.

He would further submit that co-accused has been granted bail. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offences and considering the quantity of material involved in this case and also considering the fact that co-accused has been released on bail and considering other aspects, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate – IV, Coimbatore on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
