The petitioner / accused, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 303(2), 326(a) of BNS and Section 21(1) Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.368 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with another accused had attempted to illegally transport the lake sand. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is an innocent and he has not involved in the offences as alleged by the prosecution and the respondent police had falsely implicated him in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The Government Advocate (Criminal side) for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused have attempted to illegally transport the lake sand. He would further submit that there are no previous case against this petitioner. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offences and also considering the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of his arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court cum J.M.Vaniyambodi on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m. for a period of four weeks.

Crl.OP.No.20249 of 2024

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer;

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court;

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 B.N.S.2023.
