Crl.O.P.No.20234 of 2024

WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 381, 467 and 468 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 in Crime No.139 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the owner of the lorry 12 wheeler and he engaged the petitioner as a driver and handed over the said lorry and instructed him to rent the vehicle for hire and pay the EMI for the said vehicle, but the petitioner only paid five months EMI and three months EMI was not paid. Subsequently, the petitioner mortgaged the said lorry to one Arthanari; the said Arthanari removed the engine number, chassis number of the said lorry and created a fake Registration Certificate and sold the lorry to third party. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner only sub-let the vehicle to one Arthanari who subsequently sold the vehicle to a third party in the alleged manner which the petitioner is totally unaware of. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the defacto complainant is the owner of the lorry 12 wheeler and he engaged the petitioner as a driver and handed over the said lorry and instructed him to rent the vehicle for hire and pay the EMI for the said vehicle, but the petitioner only paid five months EMI and three months EMI was not paid. Subsequently, the petitioner mortgaged the said lorry to one Arthanari; the said Arthanari removed the engine number, chassis number of the said lorry and created a fake Registration Certificate and sold the lorry to third party and there is no previous case as against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
