WEB C P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 406 and 420 of IPC, in Crime No.177 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein received a sum of Rs.19,18,000/- from the defacto complainant for investing in the share market and assured him to give fanciful returns. The petitioner herein had repaid a sum of Rs. 6,38,120/- and the remaining amount to be paid by the petitioner is Rs.12,79,680/- but the same was failed to pay by the petitioner to the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner herein received a sum of Rs.19,18,000/- from the defacto complainant for investing in the share market and assured him to give fanciful returns. The petitioner herein had repaid a sum of Rs. 6,38,120/- but the remaining amount of Rs.12,79,680/- was failed to pay by the petitioner to the defacto complainant and he further submitted that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering the date of FIR and some of the amount was also paid by the petitioner to the defacto complainant and that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen
