Crl.O.P.No.20454 of 2024

P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) r/2 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.202 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a previous dispute between the petitioners and the de facto complainant with regard to land. On the day of occurrence, due to the the dispute, a quarrel arouse between the parties and both the parties and it is alleged that the de facto complainant was assaulted by the petitioners. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioners had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for their due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that there was an enmity between both the parties and on the date of occurrence, quarrel arose between both the parties and as a result, the defacto complainant was injured and further, there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and also considering the gravity of offences, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and also considering the nature of offence charged against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi, Thirupathur District on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (each)

(Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police every Saturday, for four weeks.

[b] the petitioners shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade then from disclosing such facts of the Court or to any police officer.

[c] the petitioners shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioners shall make themselves available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the
