2. The case of the prosecution is that “due to previous enmity, on 09.08.2024 at about 7.30 a.m., the petitioners abused and assaulted the defacto complainant and his father and mother with iron rod and wooden log and also threatened them with dire consequences. Further, the petitioners trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant and damaged the household articles and also damaged the bike”. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case due to previous enmity. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that “the injured” have been discharged from the hospital and there is a case in counter. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the submissions of both sides and also of the fact that the injured persons have been discharged from the hospital and there is a case in counter, and no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ulundurpet, Kallakurichi District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
