Crl.O.P. No.20345 of 2024

WEB CO P.DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 4(1-A), 4(1)(a), 4(i)(i) of the TNP Act in Crime No.678 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 16.07.2024 at 16.00hrs the respondent police while patrolling found that the petitioner had selling illicit arrack, the respondent police found in possession 20 packet of 2 liters ID arrack; 180ml MC Mens club Brandy and ID arrack of 2 liters. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would contend that this petitioner already have two case, one case is disposed and another case this petitioner was granted bail. This petitioner is an innocent person and he had not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police and hence he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that the respondent police patrolling found that the petitioner had selling illicit arrack, the respondent police found in possession 20 packet of 2 liters ID arrack; 180ml MC Mens club Brandy and ID arrack of 2 liters. This petitioner has two previous cases and then he released on bail. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the the nature of offence involved in this case and considering that already the petitioner was already granted bail in all other pending cases and other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before
