The petitioner apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 498 (A), 294(B) and 506 (1) of I.P.C in Crime No.14 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant was married to the petitioner and it is alleged that the petitioner and his family have demanded dowry. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner and the de facto complainant are husband and wife respectively. He further submitted that that H.M.O.P and divorce petitions are pending before the Subordinate Court and that there is no previous case as against the petitioner and also considering the gravity of offences, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and also the relationship between the parties and there is a matrimonial dispute pending and also considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and taking into consideration of the fact that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail and that there is no previous case as against the petitioner and this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No.1 Mannargudi, Tiruvarur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand

Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police on every Saturday, until further orders.

[b] the petitioner shall not, directly or indirectly, make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade then from disclosing such facts of the Court or to any police officer.

[c] the petitioner shall not leave India without the previous permission of the Court.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall make himself/herself available for interrogation by a police officer as and when required.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the
