This Criminal Original petition has been filed on the ground that the matter has already been compromised between the petitioner and the 2nd respondent.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner brought to the notice of this Court the bail order that was passed in Crl MP No.18 of 2023 dated 03.01.2023 and the relevant portion in the order is extracted hereunder :-

3. Heard both. Records perused. From records it would clear that accused was remanded on 30.12.2022. At this stage, the investigation might be completed. There is no previous conviction against the accused. The defacto complainant appeared before this Court and filed an affidavit stating that, they compounded the offence. At this stage, this accused are entitled for bail. Any other possible objections of the prosecution with regard to absconding of accused and tampering of evidence and commission of further offence could be compensated inform of bail conditions. Hence, it is decided to allow the application on the following terms and conditions:

3. This Court wanted to enquire the 2nd respondent before recording the compromise between the parties. Hence, this Court directed the learned Government Advocate to instruct the police to bring the 2nd respondent before the Court in order to ascertain the factum regarding compromise from the 2nd respondent. Accordingly, the matter was posted for
