P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 6(4) of the Tamil Nadu Scheduled Commodities (RDCS) 1982 under Section 7(1)(a)(ii) of the EC Act and in Crime No.128 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that during a regular search the first and the second accused were found in possession of 550 kgs of PDS rice worth Rs.3,107/- alleging to send the same to the petitioner. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He submitted that the petitioner is willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that during a regular search, the first and the second accused were found in possession of 550 kgs of PDS rice worth Rs.3,107/- alleging to send it to the petitioner and the materials were seized and there is no previous case as against the petitioner and considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and also taking into consideration the quantity of materials seized and as the co-accused were arrested and released on bail and further, considering that there is no previous case as against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial Magistrate No.1, Cuddalore on condition that the petitioner
