The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 3(2)(a), 4(1), 5(1)(a) of Immoral Traffic Prevention Act in Crime No. 200 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were doing a brothel business in a house by engaging victim girls, thereby getting unlawful enrichment. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was no way connected with the alleged offence. He further submitted that based on the confession statement of the co-accused, the petitioner name has been included in the First Information Report. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with other accused were doing a brothel business in a house by engaging victim girls, thereby getting unlawful enrichment. He further submitted that there is no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above submissions made by the learned Counsel on either side, nature of allegations levelled against the petitioner, no previous case is pending against the petitioner and considering all other aspects, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Alandur, Chennai - 16 on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
