The petitioners apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 294(b), 323 and 506(1) of IPC in Crime No.286 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had executed a settlement deed in favour of the first petitioner, which triggered the first petitioner's brother to set up their mother/defacto Complainant to prefer a complaint against the petitioners due to a civil dispute regarding the property.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners, injured was discharged from the hospital and considering that except 506(1), all other offences are bailable in nature, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
