3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that this is second petition seeking for bail and he is in custody for more than 2 years 1 month. He would further submit that he is no way connected with the offence and he has not at all committed any offence as alleged by the respondent police. He would submit that there is no recovery from this petitioner and he is ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that the respondent police recovered 26 kgs. of contraband from the accused, which is a commercial quantity. However, now the investigation is almost completed and the trial was commenced. He would submit that out of six witnesses, so far four witnesses were examined and it is at the part-heard stage and he is hailing from Andhra Pradesh. He would submit that if he is released on bail, he would hamper the investigation and tamper the witnesses Hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the submissions made by both counsel and also considering gravity of offence committed by the petitioner and investigation was completed and the time was commenced and out of six witnesses, so far 4 witnesses were examined and it is a part-heard matter and the fact that petitioner is hailing from Andhra Pradesh and at this stage, if he is released on bail, there is possibility of tampering the witnesses and hampering the investigation and also the fact there is no change of circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
