4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioners are the in laws of the victim minor girl who was married to the first accused and she committed suicide and there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the fact that the petitioners are the in-laws of the minor victim girl and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and further taking into consideration of the fact that the first accused was arrested and released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Sessions Judge, Fast Track Mahila Court, Krishnagiri on condition that
