2. The petitioner is challenging the order passed by the Collector delegating his powers with regard to the Revenue Recovery Certificates.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner is not able to point out that the Collector has no power to delegate it to the 6th respondent. It is submitted that there are large number of recovery certificates pending with respondent No.6. If an aggrieved employee who has not received the amount approaches this Court, we will consider his grievance in the appropriate matter.
