Even though notice has been served, nobody is appearing on behalf of the first respondent.

5. The imminent threat, which is expressed on behalf of the petitioner, and considering the nature of allegations in this case relating to the investment of the money of the defacto complainant and considering the fact that a breathing time can be given to the petitioner to approach the jurisdictional Court by way of filing an appropriate anticipatory bail application or to surrender before the concerned Court and come out on bail, this Court is inclined to grant interstate interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner for a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order to enable them to move to the concerned Court.

6. Accordingly, interim interstate anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioner for a period of three weeks, on condition that the petitioner shall surrender before the second respondent police within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made is ready and the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only) to
