WEB C P.DHANABAL,J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 341, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.222 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 16.06.2024, due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused waylaid the defacto complainant, abused him using filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant with hands, cricket bat and stones. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that only a wordy quarrel took place between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. The petitioner has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner along with other accused assaulted the defacto complainant with hands and by using cricket bat, due to which, the defacto complainant sustained grievous injury and now the defacto complainant has been discharged from the hospital. There are seven previous cases pending as against the petitioner.
