P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner who apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 174 of Cr.P.C in Crime No.279 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de facto complainant's husband hanged himself to death and a video recording was recovered from the deceased mobile phone who has given his last statement for suicide. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioner had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for his due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the de facto complainant's husband hanged himself to death and a video recording was recovered from the deceased mobile phone who has given his last statement for suicide. He further submitted that the deceased has borrowed a loan from the petitioner and other accused and has not repaid it and this has invoked the petitioner to commit suicide. There is no previous cases as against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and that there is no previous cases as against the petitioner and further, taking into consideration of the fact that the main accused was arrested and released on bail this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the
