P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 189(2), 126(2), 221, 351(3) of BNS 2023 & Section 3(1) of Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of Damage & Loss) Act, 1992 in Crime No.241 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant lodged a complaint against the petitioners herein stating that they deter the official of the Alangayam Town Panchayat while discharging their official duty. It is further alleging that the petitioners threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are an innocent person and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that defacto complainant lodged a complaint against the petitioners stating that they deter the official of the Alangayam Town Panchayat while discharging their official duty. It is further alleging that the petitioners threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences and there is no previous case as against the petitioners, and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and that there is no previous case is pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
