For Petitioner : Mr.J.Chelladurai Caldwell

For Respondents : Mrs.S.Mythreya Chandru

2. Heard Mr.J.Chelladurai Caldwell, learned counsel for petitioner and Mrs.S.Mythreya Chandru, learned Special Government Pleader appearing for respondents 1 to 5.

3. In the considered view of this Court, a writ petition can never be entertained for the sake of settling personal disputes. There seems to be some dispute between the petitioner and the eighth respondent. Therefore, the petitioner has given a representation to the official respondents to take action against the eighth respondent on the ground that the eighth respondent does not possess necessary qualification. It is not for the petitioner to raise this issue and the petitioner has no locus standi. If at all the eighth respondent does not possess the required qualification, it is for the educational authorities to deal with the same and the petitioner need not poke his nose in this issue.
