The petitioner/accused A1, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 02.08.2024 for the offence punishable under Section 8(c) r/w 20(c), 25 and 29(1) of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances, Act, in Crime No.437 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police seized 26 Narcotic Pills namely TAPCYNTA Tablets 50mg from the accused persons. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Crl.O.P. No.21479 of 2024

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 02.08.2024, for illegally selling 26 Narcotic Pills namely TAPCYNTA tables 50mg and further submits that there is no previous case pending as against the petitioner. Hence he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side counsels and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made on either side and considering the fact that no previous case is pending as against the petitioner and also considering the quantity of materials involved in this case is not a commercial quantity and taking into consideration the nature of offence involved in this case and also considering the period of incarceration, I am inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

[a] Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on condition to execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Ponneri, and on further conditions that:

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police every day, until further orders.

[c] the petitioner shall attend in accordance with the conditions of the bond.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioner shall not commit any offence similar to the offence of which he is accused, or suspected, or of the commission of which he is suspected.

[f] the petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

[g] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Judicial Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned
