The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 115(2), 118(2), 351(3) and 3(5) of the B.N.S. Act, 2023 in Crime No.201 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that as there was a civil dispute between the family members with regard to land, quarrel arouse between the parties. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submit that the petitioners had not committed any offence as alleged and the petitioners had been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for their due release and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that as there was a family dispute with regard to a property, petitioners were involved in a quarrel with the other family members and during the quarrel, a person was injured and discharged from hospital and there are no previous cases as against the petitioners and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioners and the injured was discharged from hospital and that there are no previous cases as against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Metropolitan Magistrate Court No.2, Egmore on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (each) (Rupees Ten Thousand Only), with two sureties, each for a like sum to the
