P. DHANABAL.J.,

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 303(2) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 and Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.133 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that based on the secrete information, the respondent police visited the spot and they found that the 1st petitioner was illegally transported the 2 Unit of Pilling sand in Tipper Lorry bearing registration No.TN 49 BE 2668. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would contend that these petitioners are innocent persons and they have not indulged in any illegal activities as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case by the respondent police. There is no previous case as against these petitioners. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) would submit that based on the secrete information, the respondent police visited the spot and they found that the 1st petitioner was illegally transported the 2 Unit of Pilling sand in Tipper Lorry bearing registration No.TN 49 BE 2668. There is no previous case as against these petitioners. However, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the rival submissions on either side, considering the fact that the nature of offence involved in this case, no previous case is pending against the petitioner and considering other aspects, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate, Vedaranyam, Nagapattinam District on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m for the period of four weeks;

[b] the petitioners shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case so as to dissuade him from disclosing such facts to the Court or to any police officer or tamper with the evidence.

[c] the petitioners shall not leave India without the prior permission of the Court.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].
