4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that two packets of arrack was found from the first accused and based on the statement of the first accused, the petitioner is implicated as third accused and there are four previous cases as against the petitioner which are similar in nature and also considering the gravity of offences, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner .

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and though, there are four previous cases as against the petitioner, he was granted bail in all the cases and further, taking into consideration of the fact that the petitioner was arrayed as third accused only based on the confession statement of the first and second, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Judicial
