CrI.O.P.No.21340 of 2024

P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Section 379, 418 of the IPC, 1860 in Crime No.1132 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that one Maniyan is worked as an advisor in See Hydro System India Private Limited. Due to Maniyan bad activity, the company terminated him. Because of the enmity, Maniyan started his own company in the name of Power Arm Engineering Private Limited and he tried to make bad impression about See Hydro System India Private Limited and offered very low price for some customers in his company. The erstwhile workers of See Hydro System India Private Limited namely Chandru and Paniyan join their hands with Maniyan and tried to steal some templates from See Hydro System India Private Limited. So they contacted the current workers one Praveen/Petitioner and Suresh of See Hydro System India Private Limited to take some templates. On 08.09.2023, Praveen/Petitioner and Suresh stolen the Tie Rod it was a spare parts and handed over the stolen spare parts to that Pandiyan. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that petitioner and his friend stolen the tie Rod it was spare parts and handed over the stolen spare parts to Pandiyan and there is no previous case as against the petitioner and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and
