Crl.O.P.No.21360 of 2024

P.DHANABAL, J.

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Section 341, 294(b), 397, 336 and 506(ii) of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 in Crime No.198 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 17.10.2023 the petitioner/A3 and A1 are restrained the informant and threaten with knife point and robbed a sum of Rs.600/- and mobile phone. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the informant having enmity with the A1, due to the enmity the informant has given false complaint as against the petitioner. However, on instructions, the learned counsel further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that the petitioner/A3 and A1 are restrained the informant and threaten with knife point and robbed a sum of Rs.600/- and mobile phone and there is no previous case as against the petitioner in similar kind of offence and further, considering the gravity of offence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the representations made by both sides and considering the nature of offences charged against the petitioner and considering that only based on the confession of A1, this petitioner was arrayed as accused and also considering that the case is pending from 17.10.2023 and that no previous case is pending against the petitioner in similar kind of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his/her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the Metropolitan Magistrate No. V, Egmore on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
